Scam Safety

There's been an uptick in reports of scammers posing as law enforcement officers, claiming you have a warrant for your arrest and demanding immediate payment to avoid being taken into custody. These fraudsters often instruct victims to withdraw cash, send wire transfers, or even pay with gift cards.

REMEMBER-

- The Roanoke Police Department will NEVER call you demanding payment over the phone for a warrant.
- We will NEVER ask for gift cards, cryptocurrency, or wire transfers as payment.
- If you receive a suspicious call, hang up immediately and verify by calling us directly at 817-491-6052.

Other Common Scams to Watch Out For-

- Jury Duty Scam: Scammers claim you missed jury duty and must pay a fine to avoid arrest.
- IRS/Tax Scam: Callers impersonate the IRS and threaten arrest if back taxes aren't paid.
- Impersonation Scam: Scammers spoof legitimate law enforcement phone numbers to make their calls appear real.

Stay vigilant and protect yourself! If you ever doubt a call, contact RPD directly at 817-491-6052.
