this month:

MEMOIR & BIOGRAPHY

It's Women's History Month, a great time to delve into stories about real people. A biography is a comprehensive account of a person's entire life, often written by someone else. A memoir is a more personal and focused narrative that explores specific themes, moments, or periods in the author's life. Check our displays or online reading lists for memoir & biography books for all ages to complete this month's challenge in our year-long Turn the Page program!
